OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 25 July 1962

1. [] Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) telephoned concerning one [] an Agency employee under the [] program. The call was not to review the termination but to get some indication of [] capabilities and background since he has been seeking employment opportunities on the Hill and apparently has been interviewed by members of Jackson's staff for possible referral elsewhere. Based on previous briefings concerning this case, including [] and others, I indicated to Jackson that [] was a good, steady, competent individual but on the other hand could not be placed in the outstanding category. Jackson was appreciative and just wanted to make sure there were no significant items in the background which would prevent or should prevent their referring this man to other individuals.

2. []

3. [] Final arrangements were made with Bob Smart after checking with the Director's office for a meeting of the Agency with the Vinson Subcommittee, 10 a.m., Monday, 30 July 1962.

4. [] Picked up from the office of Representative Albert H. Quie (R., Minn.) his most recent letter from the student in the Soviet Union. This is being forwarded to SR Division for review and comment.
